

I urge the FCC to deny the petition of the CBA and weaken the current Indiana No Call Law. This law has improved my time at home in the evenings; I now know when the phone rings it is someone with whom I want to talk. I do not wish to go back to the way it was before the law took hold. Thank you. Pamela Wilfing